Pick and Mix for Grown Ups

Buy 12 or more mixed or straight of the following and pay $10 per bottle

Wolf Blass Red Label Shiraz Grenache 2010, RRP $15, 2 trophies

Hitch yourself to the WolfWagen and enjoy this smooth red wine 'for the people'. We see plenty of spice and blue fruits from the Shiraz. This is enveloped by charmingly confected Grenache. The overall effect is soft, supple and lip smacking. Knock the top off and enjoy with a gourmet meat pie, or perhaps some Kassler and Sauerkraut if you are feeling a bit posh

Tim Adams Bayes Block Clare Valley Cabernet 2007, RRP $16

This is a new addition to the Tim Adams stable but by no means a blind pick for a mug punter. Full bodied, this offers a good spectrum of Cabernet flavours and excellent length

Tim Adams Bayes Block Clare Valley Shiraz 2007, RRP $16

Deep colour and depth of flavour, with great balance of fruit and oak - from a great vintage and Clare Valley fruit

Linda Domas Merlot 2009, RRP $20

Linda Domas McLaren Vale Merlot is perfumes and violets just as this variety promises with a whiff of French oak to boot. Drink now and enjoy! Far too nice to cellar but if you're keen there's structure to take this 5-7 years... screwcap

Tscharke 'Eva' Barossa Moscato 2010, RRP $20

Tscharke Eva Moscato ticks all the boxes for this popular style, tangy floral tropical fruit over a palate ticklish enough to fit the profile without a massive belt of residual sweetness. Beautifully balanced

St Hallett Poachers Blend White (Semillon Sauvignon Blanc) 2009, RRP $18, classic Aussie quaffer

A smartly made blend that combines the riper tropical fruit flavours of Sauvignon Blanc with the citrus elements of Semillon. The small addition of Riesling adds enticing floral and lime aromatics. There's a surprising amount of concentration for such an easy drinking white

Deep Woods 'Ivory' Margaret River Semillon Sauvignon Blanc 2011, RRP $20, Gold medal

This particular tinctural tinkle gives nod to said greenery with its abundance of dark, herbaceous Sauvignon intensity. Balancing that is the fine, oiled charm of Semillon which brings refinement with its hint of polish. Together these two are a safe bet, paying off with seafood in the company of likeminded coves

Marlborough Park Adelaide Hills Traminer Riesling 2009, RRP $18

This particular tinctural tinkle gives nod to said greenery with its abundance of dark, herbaceous Sauvignon intensity. Balancing that is the fine, oiled charm of Semillon which brings refinement with its hint of polish. Together these two are a safe bet, paying off with seafood in the company of likeminded coves
