

CELEBRATING NATIONAL OFFICE PROFESSIONALS DAY Friday 28 May, 2010

GUEST SPEAKER PROFILE

Wendy Morton is a pharmacist and health innovator with a passion for preventive health initiatives. A firm believer in it being far easier and more cost effective for a society to be curators of good health than curers of disease, she has a remarkable knack for translating complex medical terms and concepts into regular people-speak, liberally sprinkled with a dose of humour. With a colourful career that spans chocolate factories and real estate sales before she discovered pharmacy, Wendy is committed to helping individuals and communities be happy, healthy and connected.
